NOVARACLEANING LLC

06 Sales call

How to run the call, when to offer $10 then $15, and which details to capture before anything is sent.

Novara Cleaning LLC. Phone (844) 735-2070. Bookings support@novaracleaning.com. Speak a dollar amount only after a live price function returns it.

The call is to book the clean. Capture enough detail to save a quote even if they do not pay today, and send the booking only when they decide to proceed.

Capture before you price

A quote cannot be saved without: First name, Email, Home size, Service type.

Also capture before you send a booking

- Last name
- Mobile number
- ZIP code
- Street address
- Beds and baths
- How lived-in the home is: light, typical, or heavy
- Add-ons
- Preferred date
- Arrival window: 8-12, 12-4, or 4-8
- The price you said, after the courtesy if you offered one

Say the real price first

Do not open with a discount. Read the total, the half deposit, and the balance.

$10, then $15

Say the full price first. Offer this only after they hesitate: too expensive, need to think, shopping other quotes, or not ready to give a card.

- The service total before this courtesy must be over $175. A $175 clean does not qualify.
- Start at $10. Use $15 only if they are still not ready. Never offer both as a stack, and never more than $15.
- One courtesy on this visit. Do not put it on a Glow membership rate.
- Do not say the lower price until it is saved on the quote. The text, the email, and the pay link have to show that same number.
- The deposit is half of the price after the courtesy. The rest is due after the clean.

I can take $10 off this visit so you can try us. That makes it [new total]. Half of that, [new deposit], holds the date.

If this is the visit that gets you on the calendar, I can make it $15 off. That is as far as I can go. The total is [new total], and [new deposit] holds it.

Example. $298.75 is over $175. $10 off is $288.75. If they are still unsure, $15 off is $283.75. Stop there. Do not say either number until the payment link shows it.

If they book

- Read the details back and save the quote in internal booking. Saving locks that price for 48 hours.
- Create the booking and send the pay link by text or email. They pay the deposit on our Stripe page. Never take a card number on the call.
- Tell them the order on the link: confirm the service and the window, pay half, then finish the home details page. Pets, access, and the agreements are on that last page. The visit is not fully set until they finish it. If they pay and stop, we email them to finish the details.
- After the deposit clears they get a confirmation email: booking number, date, arrival window, service, address, total, deposit paid, and balance due.
- They can also book it themselves at https://try.novaracleaning.com/book/zip. The pages run ZIP, home and service, date and arrival window, checkout for the deposit, then home details.

If they do not book today

Still save every field you have. Text or email the summary: service, address, window if they named one, total, the courtesy if you offered it, the deposit, and the booking link. Tell them the price holds for 48 hours.

Before you hang up, read back name, mobile, email, address, service, add-ons, date, arrival window, total, courtesy if any, and deposit. Ask them to correct anything that is wrong. That is the record we save and send.

Objections

That is too expensive.

I can take $10 off this visit if the service is over $175. If they are still hesitating, make it $15 off and stop there. Then read the new total and the new deposit, which is half of that new total.

Do not offer this on a service of $175 or less. Do not go past $15. Do not say the crew is bonded.

I need to think about it.

Of course. If the service is over $175 I can take $10 off this visit and hold that price for 48 hours. What day should I pencil in?

I am just getting quotes.

That makes sense. I will give you the number for this home and what is included. If you want to book and the service is over $175, I can take $10 off this visit.

I found someone cheaper.

I won't match their price. If this visit is over $175 I can take $10 off, or $15 if that is what gets you booked. That is the only courtesy.

I need to ask my spouse.

Of course. I can text a short summary to this number: the address, the service, the total, and the deposit. They can call (844) 735-2070 with questions.

Can you do a discount?

If this visit is over $175, I can take $10 off, and $15 if you are still unsure. I can't go past that, and I can't do it on a visit of $175 or less. We can also drop add-ons or use a Standard instead of a Deep.

I don't have time right now.

I can hold a window and text the booking link. It takes the deposit to confirm. Which arrival window should I send?

Is my card safe?

You pay on Stripe, on our booking page. I never take the card number on the phone. Half is due to book, and the rest is after the clean.
