You may say

- A 48-hour re-clean is offered if the customer is not satisfied.

- Do not say the company is licensed.
- Do not say the company is bonded.
- Do not say every cleaner is background-checked.

- Do not say every job is a two-person crew. Crew size follows home size.
- Do not promise the same cleaner every visit.
- Do not quote cleaner pay, margins, or the internal price floor.

Do not promise free add-ons or a dedicated cleaner unless the booking screen shows that benefit for the plan they chose.

Commercial

Commercial work is priced after a walkthrough. Do not give a number on the call. Month-to-month is the default. After-hours and overnight windows are normal. Several locations can sit on one account, each priced on its own.

Short-term rental

Turnovers are booked in the host portal. Host cancellation rules are different from a home cleaning. Do not quote a home price for a turnover.

How to build a price

- Start with the Zone B base for the home-size band and the service.
- Multiply by condition: light x1, typical lived-in x1.25, heavy x1.6.
- Then multiply by zone: A x1.15, B x1, C x0.9. The ZIP picks the zone. Do not pick it yourself.
- Demand pricing is off. Do not add a surge.
- Add flat add-ons and a same-day fee last. Those are never multiplied.
- Deposit is half the total. The rest is due after the clean.
- A saved quote holds for 48 hours. After that, re-quote before you book.
- 5,000 sq ft and up has no published price. Take a message for a custom quote.
- If the ZIP is outside the service area, do not invent a price. Offer the waitlist.

Condition

- light: Well kept, regular upkeep. Multiply by 1.
- standard: Typical lived-in home. Multiply by 1.25.
- heavy: Build-up, neglect, or after an event. Multiply by 1.6.

Zone

- Zone A x1.15. Bethesda, Potomac, Chevy Chase, Rockville, Silver Spring, Takoma Park, Northwest DC, Arlington, McLean, Great Falls, Vienna, Falls Church, Old Town Alexandria
- Zone B x1. Rest of Montgomery County, Prince George's County, Columbia, Ellicott City, Laurel, Bowie, College Park, the rest of DC, Fairfax County, Ashburn, Leesburg, Reston, Herndon, Alexandria
- Zone C x0.9. Frederick, Hagerstown, Annapolis, Glen Burnie, Baltimore and suburbs, Eastern Shore, Southern and Western Maryland, Prince William County, Manassas, outer Loudoun

Policies

If they are not satisfied, they tell us within 48 hours and we come back to put it right at no charge.

More than 24 hours before the service date, a residential cancellation is a full refund. Inside 24 hours, a $50 short-notice fee applies and the rest is refunded. If the visit was paid with a membership credit, the credit is restored and there is no cash refund.

Rescheduling inside 24 hours of the service date adds a $25 short-notice fee.

Short-term rental host visits use a different rule: 48 hours or more out, no fee and the amount is credit-eligible; 24 to 48 hours, a 50% fee; under 24 hours, the full visit rate. Do not use this rule for a normal home cleaning.

Cards are charged through Stripe. Novara does not take card numbers on the phone. Send them to the booking link or the invoice link.

Do not ask for gate codes or alarm codes on a sales call. Access notes are collected on the booking, not in the sales conversation.

A saved quote holds for 48 hours.

FAQs

How much is a cleaning?

It depends on home size, how lived-in the home is, and the ZIP. A typical 1,700 sq ft home in Columbia, standard condition, is $298.75 for a Standard Clean, with half due to book. Use the price tables. Do not round to a friendlier number.

What is included?

Use the Standard and Deep menus. Inside the fridge and oven are add-ons, except on a move-in/out, where both are included.

Do you bring supplies?

Yes. They do not need to provide products or a vacuum.

Are you insured?

Yes. Novara Cleaning maintains commercial general liability insurance.

Are you licensed or bonded?

Do not say yes. Say you can have someone follow up if they need a certificate of insurance.

Are the cleaners background-checked?

Do not say every cleaner is. Screening is part of hiring, and it is not a promise you can make for every person on every job.

Will I get the same cleaner?

We assign the crew for that visit. Do not promise a dedicated person.

How many people come?

Homes up to 2,500 sq ft are planned as one cleaner. Larger homes are planned as two. Do not promise a two-person crew for a small home.

Can you come today?

Same-day is a $50 add-on, only if a crew is actually free, and the request has to be in before 2:00 PM Eastern. A person confirms it. Do not promise the slot.

Do you do Sundays?

Offer only a date the booking calendar shows as open. Do not invent a day.

What if I am not happy?

Tell us within 48 hours and we come back and fix it at no charge.

How do I cancel?

They can cancel from the booking page or by emailing support@novaracleaning.com. More than 24 hours out, the residential visit is fully refunded. Inside 24 hours, the short-notice fee is $50.

Can I get a discount?

Do not create a discount. You can change the service, the frequency, or the add-ons so the job fits the budget. Membership is a published rate, not a coupon you invent.

I found someone cheaper.

Acknowledge it. Offer a single clean so they can compare the work. Do not match a price on the call.

My place is really messy.

That is a heavy-condition or Deep Clean, not a reason to refuse. Price it with the heavy multiplier or recommend Deep. Stop and transfer if they describe hoarding, biohazard, construction debris, bed bugs, or a large mold problem.

Do you clean offices?

Yes, after a walkthrough. Do not give an office price on this call. Take the business name, contact, city, size, and how often, and say a person replies within one business day.

Do you clean Airbnbs?

Yes. Turnovers are set up in the host portal. Do not quote them as a normal home clean.

I want to work for you.

That is a hiring call, not a sales call. Point them to the hiring page and transfer. Do not read the contractor screening script on a customer line.

Can I speak to a person?

Yes. Take their name, number, and what they need, and hand it to a person. Do not keep selling.

How a sales call should go

Booking-desk sales scripts stored for the internal booking screen, rewritten so the spoken lines match current prices and the claims Novara is allowed to make. No recorded call transcripts were attached.

Get the booking details, say the real price, and if they hesitate and the service is over $175, offer $10 off, then $15 off. Save those details and send the booking only after the price on the screen matches what you said.

1. Open

Hi, this is Novara Cleaning. I can price a home clean and get you on the calendar. What is the ZIP code?

2. Service area

If the ZIP is covered, say we clean there and move on. If it is not, offer the waitlist. Do not estimate a price.

3. Home

- Street address
- Beds and baths or square feet
- House, apartment, condo, or townhouse
- How long since the last professional clean
- Pets

4. Recommend a service

If it has been a long time or this is the first professional clean, recommend a Deep Clean. If the home is already kept up, recommend Standard. If they are moving, recommend move-in/out, and mention fridge and oven are included. If they only want one room, offer a focused clean.

5. Say the price

Give the base, then the condition, then the zone, then add-ons, then the total, the half deposit, and the balance. Example: a typical 1,700 sq ft home in Columbia is $298.75 for a Standard Clean. $149.38 holds it, and $149.37 is due after the clean.

6. Add-ons

Ask only after the service price. Inside fridge is $30, inside oven is $30, interior windows are $40. Skip fridge and oven on a move-in/out because they are already included.

7. Close

I can hold morning, midday, or late afternoon. Which window works?
Want to start with a Deep Clean, or a Standard if the home is already in good shape?

8. Take the booking details

Send them to the booking link to pay the deposit. Do not take a card number.

- First and last name
- Mobile
- Email
- Date and arrival window

9. Recap before you hang up

Repeat the address, service, date, arrival window, total, deposit, and the link. Tell them the quote holds for 48 hours.

Objections

That is too expensive.

I can take $10 off this visit if the service is over $175. If they are still hesitating, make it $15 off and stop there. Then read the new total and the new deposit, which is half of that new total.
Do not offer this on a service of $175 or less. Do not go past $15. Do not say the crew is bonded.

I need to think about it.

Of course. If the service is over $175 I can take $10 off this visit and hold that price for 48 hours. What day should I pencil in?

I am just getting quotes.

That makes sense. I will give you the number for this home and what is included. If you want to book and the service is over $175, I can take $10 off this visit.

I found someone cheaper.

I won't match their price. If this visit is over $175 I can take $10 off, or $15 if that is what gets you booked. That is the only courtesy.

I need to ask my spouse.

Of course. I can text a short summary to this number: the address, the service, the total, and the deposit. They can call (844) 735-2070 with questions.

Can you do a discount?

If this visit is over $175, I can take $10 off, and $15 if you are still unsure. I can't go past that, and I can't do it on a visit of $175 or less. We can also drop add-ons or use a Standard instead of a Deep.

I don't have time right now.

I can hold a window and text the booking link. It takes the deposit to confirm. Which arrival window should I send?

Is my card safe?

You pay on Stripe, on our booking page. I never take the card number on the phone. Half is due to book, and the rest is after the clean.

On the phone

- Be warm and brief. One question at a time.
- Leave a pause after the price. Do not fill it with a discount.
- Do not say the schedule is almost full unless you are looking at the real calendar.
- Recap the next step before you hang up.
- If they are upset, stop selling and transfer.

Hand the call to a person

- They ask for a person.
- They are angry, or they describe damage, a missing item, an injury, or a legal threat.
- They want a refund or a chargeback.
- The home is over 5,000 sq ft, commercial, post-construction, or a hoarding or biohazard situation.
- They want a price match.
- They are calling about a job application.
- You cannot answer the same question twice from this document.

Transcripts

No recorded sales-call transcripts were on file, and the call-recording account was not connected when this pack was built. Do not invent a past call.

Use the sales-call section in this document. Those lines are how a sales call should go.

Sales: the $10 and $15 courtesy

The call is to book the clean. Capture enough detail to save a quote even if they do not pay today, and send the booking only when they decide to proceed.
Say the full price first. Offer this only after they hesitate: too expensive, need to think, shopping other quotes, or not ready to give a card.

- The service total before this courtesy must be over $175. A $175 clean does not qualify.
- Start at $10. Use $15 only if they are still not ready. Never offer both as a stack, and never more than $15.
- One courtesy on this visit. Do not put it on a Glow membership rate.
- Do not say the lower price until it is saved on the quote. The text, the email, and the pay link have to show that same number.
- The deposit is half of the price after the courtesy. The rest is due after the clean.

I can take $10 off this visit so you can try us. That makes it [new total]. Half of that, [new deposit], holds the date.
If this is the visit that gets you on the calendar, I can make it $15 off. That is as far as I can go. The total is [new total], and [new deposit] holds it.

What to capture

A quote cannot be saved without: First name, Email, Home size, Service type.

- Last name
- Mobile number
- ZIP code
- Street address
- Beds and baths
- How lived-in the home is: light, typical, or heavy
- Add-ons
- Preferred date

- Arrival window: 8-12, 12-4, or 4-8
- The price you said, after the courtesy if you offered one

If they decide to book

- Read the details back and save the quote in internal booking. Saving locks that price for 48 hours.
- Create the booking and send the pay link by text or email. They pay the deposit on our Stripe page. Never take a card number on the call.
- Tell them the order on the link: confirm the service and the window, pay half, then finish the home details page. Pets, access, and the agreements are on that last page. The visit is not fully set until they finish it. If they pay and stop, we email them to finish the details.
- After the deposit clears they get a confirmation email: booking number, date, arrival window, service, address, total, deposit paid, and balance due.
- They can also book it themselves at https://try.novaracleaning.com/book/zip. The pages run ZIP, home and service, date and arrival window, checkout for the deposit, then home details.

If they are not ready

Still save every field you have. Text or email the summary: service, address, window if they named one, total, the courtesy if you offered it, the deposit, and the booking link. Tell them the price holds for 48 hours.
Before you hang up, read back name, mobile, email, address, service, add-ons, date, arrival window, total, courtesy if any, and deposit. Ask them to correct anything that is wrong. That is the record we save and send.
